Re: Lively v. Wayfarer Studios, No. 1:24-cv-10049-LJL, Subpoena to Edgeworth Security Services LLC

Dear Counsel:

We write on behalf of our clients, Jonesworks LLC and Stephanie Jones (collectively “Jonesworks”) regarding the subpoena recently served by Wayfarer Studios LLC, Justin Baldoni, Jamey Heath, It Ends With Us Movie LLC, Melissa Nathan, Jennifer Abel, and Steve Sarowitz on Edgeworth Security Services LLC (“Edgeworth”) in the above-captioned matter. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45, Jonesworks objects to the subpoena for the reasons stated below.

Among the subpoena’s seventeen requests for production, requests number 1, 2, 3, and 4 call for documents and communications between Edgeworth and Jonesworks or regarding Jonesworks. Request for production 5 calls for documents and communications concerning Jennifer Abel, a former partner of Jonesworks. Jonesworks objects to each of these requests in their entirety as each calls exclusively for documents and communications that are protected by the attorney-client privilege and the work product doctrine. Jonesworks likewise objects to requests for production 6-13 in the subpoena to the extent such request might be interpreted as calling for the production of communications with or documents relating to Jonesworks or any of its current or former employees.

Please confirm in writing that your clients will withdraw the subpoena to Edgeworth to the extent that it calls for documents and communications with or about Jonesworks or any of its current or former employees.
